ADOPTION AGREEMENT

Terms of Adoption:

The following terms must be agreed to prior to adopting one of our horses. You can download the form for signature and then fax or mail back to us. Terms are as follows:

1. The horse adopted from Adapting Gaits, Inc. may never be raced.
2. The horse may need additional training in order to pursue a particular discipline or for pleasure riding.
3. It is agreed that this horse will never be sent to a slaughter facility. If the horse needs to be euthanized during the placement period defined in the placement agreement, it will be done in a humane manner by lethal injection administered by a licensed veterinarian. Proof of death must be provided, such as a veterinarian's invoice or written statement from a veterinarian.
4. Adapting Gaits, Inc. requests the right to visit the adopted horse after giving reasonable notice, such as 24 hours, to Adoptive Owner. If a horse is found to be in either poor condition, such as extremely thin, covered in visible open or healing wounds or other signs of poor care, mistreatment or squalid living conditions then Adapting Gaits, Inc. retains the right to repossess the horse without notice and without return of adoption fee. Adoption fees are non-refundable.
5. During the initial 3 month placement period, the named horse may only be transferred back to Adapting Gaits, Inc. During the initial placement period the adoptive owner may only release the horse from his/her direct supervision to Adapting Gaits, Inc. After successful completion of the Placement Period the horse will then be signed over to the adoptive owner. At times Adapting Gaits, Inc. will be working with show barns or trainers with whom we have established a trusted relationship and whereby Adapting Gaits, Inc. may waive the placement period allowing the trainers to adopt a horse and place them directly with one of their clients. Waiver of the placement period is to be granted in writing for each time it is waived. There will not be a general waiver granted to any individual.
6. If a horse is returned to Adapting Gaits, Inc. by an Adoptive Owner for any reason, the horse must be returned in the same or better condition as when it was adopted or the Adoptive Owner is responsible for any costs associated with the horse's ailments and recuperation from said ailments. Ailments may include but are not limited to: cuts and abrasions, respiratory illnesses or other ailment received while in the possession of the Adoptive Owner. The Adoptive Owner will also be responsible for transportation and costs associated with transport of the adopted horse to Adapting Gaits, Inc.

PLEASE NOTE:

- Horses are unpredictable animals. Additional training for both rider and equine may be necessary.
- Adapting Gaits, Inc. is not responsible for any damage to persons or property once the horse is adopted.
- Adapting Gaits, Inc. makes no guarantees either written or verbally about the soundness of any animal available for adoption. Adoptive Owners should have a pre-purchase veterinary exam to be paid by the Adoptive Owner.

I have read, understood and agree to the above terms.
